

Aged care standard 2: Ongoing assessment & planning with consumers

In partnership with the resident, aged care providers are required to undertake initial and ongoing assessment and planning for care services with a focus on optimising health and wellbeing in accordance with their needs, goals and preferences.

For more information and to access the Aged Care Standards videos go to www.vha.org.au

