

Aged care standard 5: Organisation's service environment

This standard applies to the physical service environment and makes sure that the service environment, furniture and equipment support a resident's quality of life, as well as their independence, ability and enjoyment. This means that the service environment suits their needs and is clean, comfortable, welcoming and well maintained.

For more information and to access the Aged Care Standards videos go to www.vha.org.au

